

Guest Speakers

Jing Li

Director of Investment Attraction South Australia

- ◎ Jing arrived in Adelaide in 2005 to advance his education. During his study, he became a teaching assistant and taught Year 1 Economics Principles and Year 2 Macroeconomics.
- ◎ After graduation he remained in Adelaide to work as a corporate analyst at a boutique advisory firm, during which time he assisted in listing a number of companies on the Australian Stock Exchange.
- ◎ Jing headed South Australia's Asian Desk at RBS Morgan Ltd (then the Stockbroking arm of Royal Bank of Scotland, Australia branch) from 2011-2012.
- ◎ In August 2012, Jing joined the public sector working at Invest in South Australia as an Associate Director.
- ◎ In September 2013, Jing was appointed as the Director to implement South Australia's China Engagement Strategy.
- ◎ In June 2016, Jing was appointed as the Director for International Development at the Investment Attraction Agency of South Australia