In a grand brunch experience, The St. Regis Bangkok celebrates Easter Sunday at VIU, with a magnificent buffet spread and free-flow Veuve Clicquot Brut Champagne, wines, cocktails and martinis, on Sunday 16th April 2017

Bangkok, Thailand, 24 March 2017 – The St. Regis Bangkok Sunday Brunch is a veritable Bangkok institution, but they are kicking it up a notch with an even more decadent Easter Sunday Brunch. On Sunday 16th April 2017, The St. Regis Bangkok presents their Magnificent Easter Sunday Brunch at VIU Restaurant on Level 12 of the hotel.

In a grand buffet experience, from 12:30pm to 3:30pm, the indulgent spread actually takes over the four restaurants and bars on that level. Guests can enjoy an extraordinary brunch of the finest fare, matched with wines, champagne and cocktails, which flows seamlessly from VIU, through The Drawing Room, across The St. Regis Bar, and into Decanter.

Commence at VIU with an assortment of antipasti, salads, foie gras, seafood on ice, prime cuts of meat, brunch favourites, and flavours from around the globe, as well as Thai specialties and house-made pasta. An enticing collection of sweet endings, an incredible showcase of Easter chocolate, international cheeses and other delights also await on this monumental culinary journey.

Various drinks packages are available together with the Magnificent Easter Sunday Brunch, to suit guests' beverage choices. Prices start from THB 2,700++ per person, with the non-alcoholic beverages package, while THB 3,400++ per person allows for wines, sparkling wines, Siam Mary, martinis, beers, smoothies and juices. Furthermore, the top-tier brunch package of THB 4,900++ per person includes a continuous flow of Veuve Clicquot Brut Champagne.

As a family-friendly experience, there is plenty to amuse the little ones. Children are occupied by decorating their own Easter eggs, and are entertained by the Rabbit Mascot parade show, Easter candy and chocolate Easter eggs, for hours of fun. This means that the adults can kick back and enjoy another glass of champagne or linger over a creative martini or two extra, while taking in the panoramic verdant views of the Royal Bangkok Sports Club and the captivating city skyline.

This lavish brunching affair makes for a memorable Easter Sunday with the whole family. The St. Regis Bangkok invites guests to don their Sunday best, and take time out to dine in elegance and refinement all afternoon long...
