

AustCham's Business Meetings update

23 February, 2017

AustCham held a Breakfast Briefing on the topic "Myanmar: an update on the Business and Regulatory Environment" at Servcorp's Park Venture offices. Zaw Erskine from BDO Advisory Myanmar provided an insight into the current situation in Myanmar, the changes that have occurred recently and further development and changes in the pipeline.

22 February, 2017

AustCham organised a Joint Presentation on Thai Customs Alliance project to provide premium expedited customs clearance for Chamber of Commerce members.

Held at the Australian Embassy and attended by members from Austcham, Amcham, BCCT, and NZTCC, the presentation was conducted in two parts:

- Australian Trusted Trader program introduction by Commander Christopher Wall and Superintendent Vince Shaw from the Australian Border Force; and
- Customs Alliance 4.0 introduction by Dr. Thee Chitpitaklert from the Thai Customs Department.

Please contact the Chamber office if you would like to know more information about this project.

20 February, 2017

AustCham's President, Brenton Mauriello, attended the first Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Business Advisory Council (ABAC) meeting at Dusit Thani.

Brenton is seen here picture with NZTCC President, Warren Boyes.

14 February, 2017

AustCham's Board of Directors attended a roundtable discussion with representatives from the Thai Chamber of Commerce, and a visiting trade delegation from Queensland, at the Anantara Siam Hotel.

Led by Andrew Park, Honorary Consul of Thailand for Queensland, and attend by H.E. Chirachai Punkrasin, the Thai Ambassador to Australia, the trade delegation from the Toowoomba and Surat Basin Enterprise (TSBE), visited Thailand to explore business opportunities, including a meeting with our Board of Directors and representatives from the Thai Chamber of Commerce. With the relationship established, AustCham looks forward to assisting TSBE with potential business in Thailand, and welcomes visits from all Australian business organisations wishing to learn more about business in Thailand.

3 February, 2017

AustCham's President, Brenton Mauriello, attended a "Jobs Street Fair" organised as part of the 'JOBS for Thailand 4.0' project.

